March 1, 1849.

INDER the joint resolution of Congress, approved May 9, 1848, entitled a "Resolution respecting contracts for hemp for the use of the American navy," sealed proposals will be received at this bureau, or the United States hemp agencies at Louisville, Kentucky, or St. Louis, Missouri, (to be fowarded by them unopened to this bureau,) for delivering under contract, at either of the said hemp agencies, for a term not exceeding five years, the best quality of American Water-rotted hemp, in quantities of five tons and upwards, the ton to consist of 2,240 pounds. No bid will be considered at a higher rate than two hundred and forty-one dollars per ton. The proposals to be opened on the 6th of August next. The department will then determine whether the contracts shall be awarded. No delivery will be required sooner than the 1st day of January, 1850.

The said hemp must be equal in quality to the best foreign hemp; and in all cases of equality of bid, the contract will be given to the hemp grower. The quantity required annually will be about 500

The quantity required annually will be ab

The said hemp must be thoroughly dressed, cleaned, free from shives, and must not lose more than sixteen per cent. of tow and waste when hatchelled to the satisfaction of the inspectors ready for spinning. Its strength must be such that a rope of one and three-fourths of an inch in circumference, of one and three-fourths of an inch in circumference, made from twenty-one yarns, as prepared and tested by the inspectors, or by their direction, will bear at least 4,200 pounds, and its length, color, and other properties must be entirely satisfactory to the inspectors, or the chief of this bureau, or it will not be received; it will be inspected and tested at the respective places of delivery.

The respective United States hemp agents to certify bills for the hemp which may pass inspection and be received by them, according to the contracts which may be entered into; ninety per cent. of which bills to be payable within thirty days after their presentation to such navy agents as may be their presentation to such navy agents as may be agreed upon and named in the contracts.

Persons offering must state the price, in words and figures, (clearly and legibly,) asked per ton of 2,240 pounds, when delivered, inspected, tested, approved, and received by the said hemp agent, and payable, as above specified.

Every offer must be accompanied, as directed in Every offer must be accompanied, as directed in the act of Congress making appropriations for the naval service, approved 10th August, 1846, by a written guaranty, signed by one or more responsible persons, (to be certified by some official personage,) to the effect that he or they undertake that the bidder or bidders will, if his or their bid be accepted, enter into an obligation within fifteen days after the contract is submitted for signature, with good and sufficient sureties to furnish the supplies proposed. No proposal will be considered unless accompanied by such guaranty.

Bonds, with two approved sureties in one-half the estimated amount of the respective contracts, will be required, and ten per centum in addition will be withheld from the amount of each payment to be made, as collateral security for the due and faithful performance of the respective contracts, which ing Wednesday morning, at the hours of the continuous tioned, during the season.

For passage and freight, apply to the Captain on board, or to the several agents: C. Worthington, Baltimore; Mr. Riley, Washington; Messrs. Pickrell, Georgetown; and Messrs. Wheat, Alexandria.

JAMES HARPER, Captain.

A report having been extensively circulated that the steamer Columbia had been condemned by the Inspector of Steamboat Hulls for the port of Washington, the annexed certificates are published in refutation thereof:

Having been called upon by you to examine the hull of the steamer Columbia, whilst on the railway in Baltimore, on the 23d ultimo, and having performed that duty. I feel no hesitancy in saving that formed that duty, I feel no hesitancy in saying that the hull of that boat is in good condition, and trust-worthy for the carriage of freight and passengers between this place and Baltimore. The injury done to the sternpost having now been repaired, I con-sider her to be as good as many steamboats of five ears of age.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
WILLIAM EASBY, Inspector of Steamboats.
WASHINGTON, February 17, 1849.

To William Gunton, Esq., President of the Washington, Alexandria, and Georgetown Steam Packet

We, the undersigned, shipwrights of Baltimore, have had the steamer Columbia upon our railway, and, at the request of the owners and agent, have examined her throughout and made all necessary repairs. We now, without hesitation, pronounce her to be in very good order for the transportation of freight and passengers between Baltimore and Washington. FLANNIGAN & TRIMBLE.

A DOUBLE NUMBER! And the whole volume will be continued in a style of excellence never before equalled—with some improvements which we dare not even hint at. It will be ONE BLAZE OF BEAUTY THROUGHOUT.

The publisher of the Lady's Book pledges his well earned reputation of twenty years, that his work shall surpass, both in the number of pages published, and the number, beauty, and variety of his Engravings, any other work published in THIS OR ANY OTHER COUNTRY. Besides giving more matter in every Number than any other publication, he gives in addition, to those who pay three dollars, the Lady's Dollar News-paper, of large size, published twice a month. The paper alone contains more reading than any month-ly except the Lady's Book—thus $3 subscribers get three publications each month, fully equal to two magazines. This is a better premium than the "miserable" engravings offered by others.
